

Items Not Accepted For Consignment

R&R does not accept items that are not of gift quality (This means items that you would not give as a gift to someone else). Items that have stains, rips, scratches, missing pieces, are dirty (can not be cleaned with a simple wipe), look too worn, or items that don't work are not acceptable. Any item that is not of gift quality or not in "ready to sell" condition will be donated on your behalf.
